

ROYAL SOCIETY SCIENCE SHOW CASE

18th August 2021, 6-8pm

Pacific Cultures Gallery, South Australia Museum

Hosted by the Royal Society of South Australia for National Science Week

Join us for lightning talks of cutting-edge and impactful research in South Australia

Corinne Mensforth
Flinders University

Fishy business: finding fossil evidence of the fish-tetrapod transition

Samantha Bywaters
University of Adelaide

Conserving orchids in a changing climate

Phoebe McInerney
Flinders University

Severe, drought-induced bone infections in the giant bird, Genyornis newtoni

Erica Durante
University of South Australia
Promoting sustainability of local octopus with age data

John Bye
University of Melbourne
The origin of light

Alana Delaine
University of Adelaide
This is the house that wasps built

Register to attend

This National Science Week project is supported by the Australian Government